The Thunder Bay Regional Health Research Institute (TBRHRI) - an independent, not-for-profit corporation - is the research arm of the Thunder Bay Regional Health Sciences Centre (TBRHSC). Research, innovation and learning are driven by the needs of our patients, our staff, and our communities.

In conjunction with the Northern Ontario Heritage Fund Corporation (NOHFC), we are currently seeking candidates for the following position:

Clinical Research Services Research Assistant Internship – NOHFC #7402097 (1 Year Contract)

The individual filling this position works closely with the Thunder Bay Regional Health Research Institute's (TBRHRI) Clinical Research Services Department (CRSD), and Physician Investigator groups at the Thunder Bay Regional Health Sciences Centre (TBRHSC). Their time is devoted to the support and development of clinical research projects within various research platforms. Specifically, it is the expectation that this position will support the Physician initiated studies currently underway, as well as several upcoming studies. This will include assisting with the coordination, implementation, and analysis of projects in accordance with study protocols, and associated policies and procedures.

The ideal candidate will have training and experience in basic research design. Medical knowledge and an overall knowledge of the healthcare system are assets to this position. Strong writing skills and proficiency using basic software programs including Microsoft Word, Excel, and Powerpoint are required. Along with the completion of a degree in science or medicine, the Intern must be highly dedicated and organized, with the ability to multi task in a fast-paced, diverse and growing environment. Exceptional organizational and communication skills, coupled with strong quantitative, analytic and reasoning skills are necessary. This position is required to be on-site to complete the duties of the job.

This opportunity is proudly supported by Northern Ontario Heritage Fund Corporation and is funded through the Workforce Development Program. Eligibility requirements of the program can be found here: <https://nohfc.ca/en/pages/programs/people-talent-program/workforce-development-stream>
